Environmental Issues Stop-Motion Project
Due: Wednesday, November 9, 2022

Directions: Using your notes and independent research, create a 30-slide stop-motion Google Slide that explains the causes and effects OR causes and solutions to ONE of the environmental issues discussed in class.

Rubric:

	Exceeds-20	Meets-15	Needs Work-10
Animation Technique (20 points)	Animation is very smooth and fluid. Character and object motions are brought to life in a realistic way. The technique is excellent and consistent.	Animation is mostly smooth and fluid.	Animation is extremely choppy. Unwanted objects are often evident. Character and object motions are not realistic.
Story/Concept (20 points)	There is a clear storyline, concept, or idea evident.	The storyline is mostly clear, although some scenes may distract the audience.	The storyline is not present or extremely difficult to understand. The audience does not understand the story at all.
Duration (20 points)	30+ slides	16-29 slides	1-15 slides
Environmental issue cause and effects (20 points)	The cause and effect(s) are accurately and clearly depicted.	Only depicts the cause OR the effect(s) of the environmental issue accurately and clearly.	Does not clearly and accurately depict the cause or effect(s) of the environmental issue.
Creativity (10 points)	Work exceptionally unique, detailed, and interesting.	Work is generally unique, detailed, and interesting.	Work is not unique, detailed, and interesting. No risks taken.
Presentation (10 points)	Presents project and pays attention while classmates present.	Presents projects, but is off-task when classmates present.	Refuses to present and is off-task when classmates present.